

Miss Tourism Pageant Organization (herein referred to as Miss Tourism) is excited to welcome you as a state queen and national/world contestant! Miss Tourism is a community service and platform-based pageant system that upholds the highest standards, fostering a positive pageant environment and encouraging personal excellence for all contestants and their families.

This Contract and Guidelines applies to all activities while representing and attending Miss Tourism Pageant Organization events, appearances, service projects, and more at the local, state, national, and world levels, as well as personal activities. Contestants and their Parent/Guardian are required to sign this contract, agreeing to abide by the Miss Tourism Pageant Organizations Appointed State Title Contract and Guidelines, as well as the Miss Tourism Rules and Regulations.

Failure to sign does not waive the contestant or parent's agreement to these terms, as accepting an Appointed state title with Miss Tourism Pageant Organization is a formal acknowledgment of their commitment to the Title Contract and Guidelines and all rules outlined herein.

YEAR OF SERVICE & ELIGIBILITY

As an Appointed State titleholder, you are an ambassador and representative of the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization, and you are encouraged to actively promote its mission and programs throughout your reign.

- CLASSIC MS.: Ages 50 and up (single, divorced, or widowed – with or without children)

PAGEANT REQUIREMENTS

All Miss Tourism Pageant titleholders, whether selected through a live pageant or appointed as a Worlds Miss Tourism titleholder, are expected to compete at the Worlds Miss Tourism Pageant on the dates and at the location determined by the World Office to represent their state title. If, for any reason, a contestant is unable to fulfill this obligation and attend the Worlds Miss Tourism Live Pageant, the World Office reserves the right to reassign her state title to another contestant who will compete at the finals, without the benefit of a refund or transfer of fees. The attendance of our titleholders at the finals is crucial, as it directly impacts on the sponsorship and support, we receive. Failure to attend may significantly affect our ability to secure sponsorships, and it is vital for the success of the event.

Holding a state title with Miss Tourism Pageant is a prestigious honor, and the responsibilities of serving as a titleholder should be taken seriously.

Contestants are required to:

- Attend all mandatory events during the World Competition Weekend to represent their regional/state title.
- Remain at the venue until the conclusion of the pageant and be present and on time for all pageant events.
- Arrive on time and prepared for each event, as Miss Tourism Pageant is committed to running a timely and professional competition experience.

Contestants are responsible for:

- Their own transportation, wardrobe, hotel stay/accommodations at the host hotel, most meals, and any additional expenses related to the World Pageant.
- Contestants under the age of 21 must be accompanied by an adult at all times.

Contestants and their families/guests may not:

- Approach the judges at any time before, during, or after any Miss Tourism Pageant through any form of communication, including but not limited to email, social media (posts, comments, groups, messages), phone calls, texts, or any other means.
- Discuss judging, scoring, or competition performance with the judges.
- May not contact staff for minimum of 15 days beginning after crowning, through any form of communication, including but not limited to email, social media (posts, comments, groups, messages), phone calls, texts, or any other means.
- Do not message any staff to — contact you after the 15-day wait period. Please wait until the time is up to send any messages. This includes regional, state, national or world events.

Any violation of this policy may result in disqualification, removal from the pageant, or other disciplinary action at the discretion of the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization and Executive Director.

APPEARANCES AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Contestants are required to complete a minimum of five (6) different community service projects, activities, and/or volunteer opportunities with their state title after receiving their official appointed state crown and sash. These must be shared/submitted to the Miss Tourism Facebook group <https://www.facebook.com/groups/officialmisstourismgroup> along with photos wearing the official crown and/or sash, to receive the full credit of their overall competition community service score at world finals. These must be completed during her reign.

If a contestant has an ongoing service project, they may submit multiple service submission forms, but all related efforts will be grouped together as one (1) project toward the five-project requirement for the overall score.

Example: If you regularly donate to a community food blessing box, you will submit a form each time you donate, but all submissions will count as one (1) community service project toward the overall requirement.

Miss Tourism Pageant encourages contestants and titleholders to engage in a variety of community service projects and appearances throughout their year of service.

Submission Guidelines

- All community service and appearances must be submitted along with photos actively showing participation in the service project, volunteering, or appearance.
- Contestants should take pride in their title and wear both their crown and sash together during community service and public appearances.
- Titleholders should remember that their crown and sash are their official uniform and should be worn with pride. Depending on the nature of the event, only the sash may be worn if the crown is not appropriate for the occasion.
- Only the official Miss Tourism Pageant crown and sash may be worn together—no other crowns or sashes should be worn in combination with them.

Professionalism & Presentation

- Contestants are expected to dress appropriately for all events, projecting a polished and professional appearance.

- Outfits should be age-appropriate, fashionable, and well-groomed to uphold the positive image of Miss Tourism Pageant.
- As titleholders, contestants are in the public eye and will interact with people of all ages and backgrounds—they should always present themselves as role models and positive representatives of Miss Tourism Pageant.
- Contestants should remember they are not at events to entertain friends, family or boyfriends. They are there to interact with the public.
- Contestants should not be on their phones or electronic devices while at any event unless they are taking photos or selfies with the crowd.

Social Media & Public Image

- Titleholders may not appear in any inappropriate attire in photographs, media, or magazine articles.
- Titleholders should not allow inappropriate posts to their social media accounts.
- All wardrobe choices should align with the values of Miss Tourism Pageant and be appropriate for public appearances.
- This includes all images and posts on social media, blogs, websites, and other internet platforms.

Safety & Supervision

For safety reasons, all contestants should have someone with them at events, contestants under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a family member during all appearances and community service events while representing Miss Tourism Pageant.

We are so excited to see how you use your title to make a difference! Your role as a titleholder is more than just wearing a crown—making a lasting impact in your community is key. Thank you for representing Miss Tourism Pageant with passion, integrity, and purpose!

PHOTOS, VIDEO, AND IMAGES

Contestant transfers all rights, title, and interest in her image and/or likeness during the state and/or World pageant to Miss Tourism Pageant Organization with respect to all pageant activities, whether live, recorded, photographed, or sketched, and regardless of the medium in which they are displayed.

State titleholders waive, release, and forever surrender to Miss Tourism Pageant Organization any right to income derived from their image and/or likeness in connection with the pageant. Additionally, contestants specifically agree that they shall not be entitled to any royalties, now or in the future, from their image and/or likeness derived from the pageant. By signing and submitting an application, contestants agree that the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization shall forever retain the right to use their image and/or likeness for promotional and marketing purposes. All sales, proceeds, and income derived from contestant images and/or likeness in relation to the pageant shall benefit Miss Tourism Pageant Organization only.

Contestants grant Miss Tourism Pageant Organization permission to use any photos submitted to the World Office for appearances, community service events, and activities, which may be used for promotion and marketing across various media formats, including social media, the pageant website, marketing materials, posters, banners, and more.

Miss Tourism contestants are not permitted to receive compensation for any appearances, photos, or events involving the Miss Tourism crown, sash, logos, or any reference to the Miss Tourism Pageant, without The Miss Tourism World Headquarters receiving a commission for the use of our titles, crowns, sashes, or logos. Failure to report such compensation will result in immediate dismissal. If a contestant is offered a paid opportunity involving the Miss Tourism marks, crown, sash, or logos, they must instruct the entity to contact The Miss Tourism Pageant Organization directly. Alternatively, the contestant should complete a form that includes their contact information (email, phone number, and address), as well as details about the event (who, when, where, and the amount). This form must be submitted to the World Headquarters for approval, as it is against our Policies and Procedures for any contestant to receive compensation without prior authorization.

Any images, logos, or content created, developed, or written by Miss Tourism Pageant Organization are copyrighted and are the sole property of the organization, including world, national and state pageant logos. These must not be duplicated or copied, except with written permission for official Miss Tourism Pageant promotional purposes.

Contestants are not permitted to have anything printed with the Miss Tourism Marks, Titles, Logos, on them. These items may be purchased through the pageant headquarters.

The official Miss Tourism Pageant Organization logos must not be altered in any way and may only be used in their original form. Unauthorized use of Miss Tourism Pageant Organization logos is copyright infringement.

Only authorized vendors may use the official logo(s) with written approval from the Executive Director. Anyone wishing to use the world/national or state logo must purchase items directly from Miss Tourism Pageant Organization or use an authorized vendor. This applies to, but is not limited to:

- Autograph card designs
- Apparel
- T-Shirts
- Social media graphics
- Flyers
- Any other promotional materials that include the official logo(s).

SOCIAL MEDIA

Contestants must follow and engage with the official Miss Tourism Pageant Organization social media pages on Facebook and Instagram. Contestants are encouraged to like and share posts regularly to support the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization brand.

Contestants should physically comment on each other's achievements. That will always mean more than an image, gif or like.

Titleholders are encouraged to promote their title, through, appearances, video, photos, interview, newspaper, media, news casts, community service, and sponsors on their own social media accounts. Contestants should share with the official Miss Tourism Pageant Organization social media accounts in photos and posts to showcase their involvement. Instagram is the preferred social media platform.

Additionally, contestants are encouraged to create title social media pages on Facebook and Instagram to highlight their year of service, personal platform, community service projects, and appearances. Please use the words Tourism your state and age- (i.e.) Tourism Ohio Pre-Teen 25 or Tourism California Teen 26.

Contestants understand that all posts, images, and videos must be appropriate and uphold the values of Miss Tourism Pageant Organization. The following are not acceptable on personal or title-related social media sites, blogs, websites, public appearances, or any digital platforms, nor should they allow others to post:

- Inappropriate language
- Discrediting or offensive images
- Nudity, alcohol, tobacco, or violence

- Public negative comments or unsportsmanlike behavior
- Divisive or controversial subjects
- Bullying or offensive slang

All personal social media accounts are a direct representation of Miss Tourism Pageant Organization, and contestants should be mindful of all content posted. Whether on title-related or personal pages, contestants should always uphold a positive reflection of the pageant and its values.

We love seeing our titleholders shine on social media and in their communities! Your image, voice, and platform are powerful tools to inspire others—use them to create a lasting impact while representing Miss Tourism Pageant Organization with confidence and professionalism. A random fact, did you know many nursing home/assisted living residents follow Miss Tourisms social media. They are hopeful for our future thanks to the many hours of dedication and service our queens do.

NON-COMPETE AND FIRST PRIORITY

Holding a Miss Tourism Pageant Organization title is an honor and a responsibility.

Titleholders are expected to:

- Promote their title and Miss Tourism Pageant Organization
- Encouraging others to enter too
- Serve as role models and actively engage in their communities

Because this title requires commitment, titleholders cannot compete in any other world or national pageant before the Worlds Miss Tourism Pageant. Participation in local and state pageants must be approved by the World Office through your director to ensure it does not conflict with the responsibilities of this title.

Contestants understand that their Miss Tourism title takes precedence over any other titles they may hold. By accepting a title, contestants confirm that Miss Tourism Pageant Organization is their first priority.

If a titleholder competes in another pageant that requires her to relinquish her Miss Tourism title, the following will apply:

- All fees paid are non-refundable and non-transferable.
- We reserve the right to re-assign said title to another queen who will attend finals with no benefit of refund or transfer of fees.

Being a Miss Tourism Pageant Organization titleholder is more than a title—it's a commitment to excellence, leadership, and making a difference. Contestants are encouraged to embrace this opportunity with pride and dedication.

DEADLINES AND COMMUNICATION

Contestants agree to have all paperwork, forms, ad page fees, and any other items associated with Miss Tourism Pageant Organization submitted to the Miss Tourism Pageant Office by the designated deadlines. Submitting paperwork or items late will result in a loss of points at the World/National Pageant for each item that is received late. Additionally, any fees received after the deadline will be subject to a late fee of $50 per item/fee per 10-day increments for processing.

Contestants should stay organized and ensure that all items and fees are submitted on time. Timeliness is essential for making sure the pageant runs smoothly and that no delays occur.

Contestant and their parent/guardian (if under 18) are expected to maintain open communication with the State and World/National Executive Director(s) via email, phone/text, and social media throughout their year of service. Emails, calls, texts, and messages should be answered within 24-48 hours to show respect for others' time and schedules.

Contestants understand that all questions should be directed to the World/National Office and the Executive Director, to ensure no misinformation is shared. Contestants are encouraged to refer to paperwork, handbooks, emails, and posts in the official Facebook group before reaching out to the World/National Office.

BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS AND SPORTSMANSHIP

Miss Tourism Pageant Organization expects all contestants, parents, guardians, and family members to be respectful, kind, patient, and courteous at all times—whether with directors, staff, sponsors, vendors, fellow contestants, or fellow parents during their year of service and at the World/National Pageant.

Contestants agree to act with honesty and integrity throughout their year. Any misrepresentation, lies, or untruths by the contestant or a parent/guardian will result in immediate dismissal from Miss Tourism Pageant Organization, and they will become ineligible to compete or hold a title in the future.

Miss Tourism Pageant Organization has a zero-tolerance policy for bullying, defamation of character, drama, harassment, or unsportsmanlike conduct. If a contestant or their parent/family member engages in bullying or harassment or creates defamation of character at any time during or after her year of service, they will be immediately dismissed from their title and the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization. The contestant will also become ineligible for future participation.

Depending on the severity of the behavior, legal action may be pursued. If legal action is taken, the dismissed titleholder will be responsible for all legal fees incurred by Miss Tourism Pageant Organization. The place of arbitration will be Robertson County, Nashville, Tennessee.

GENERAL AGREEMENT

Contestant and parent/guardian agree that they will not hold the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization or the state pageant responsible for any injury, loss, or accident that occurs during an appearance or community service project, or at the National Pageant.

The contestant agrees to follow and abide by all rules and regulations set forth by the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization.

Titleholders understand that they are NOT permitted, while wearing any official Miss Tourism crown and sash, to consume or pose for photos with any type of alcohol, drugs, or tobacco-related items/products at pageant-related functions, appearances, or at any time during their year of service. As a representative of the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization, it is essential to uphold a positive image, especially as a role model to various age groups. We expect our contestants/titleholders to always act as positive role models.

Contestant and parent/guardian understand and agree that the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization, along with the Executive Director, shall determine the manner and method of conducting the competition, including the timing and manner of judging, as well as the awarding and supervision of all scholarships, titles, and awards, at its sole discretion.

The contestant understands that she is not permitted to have her name embroidered on any part of the official state sash, as per Miss Tourism Pageant Organization policy. If she does, she (the State Titleholder) will be responsible for purchasing a new official state sash through the National Office at her own expense of $150. This policy is for the safety and consistency of the titleholder.

State titleholder agrees that if she does not follow the rules, regulations, policies, contracts, or agreements with the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization, she understands that depending on the severity of the infraction, she may lose points or may be dismissed from her year of service. Titleholder agrees to replace, at her own expense, the crown and/or sash if it is damaged, lost, or stolen during her year of service.

State Crowns $100.00 State Sashes $150

World/National Crowns $150.00 World/Natl. Sashes 250.00

ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

I have reviewed the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization Title Contract and Guidelines, and the Rules and Regulations. My parents or legal guardian, as well as I, agree to uphold all of its provisions. I hereby release and forever discharge the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization, its directors, volunteers, and staff from any and all claims and demands arising from damages or liabilities due to theft, accident, loss, or injury resulting from participation in the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization and/or any of its events.

The titleholder and parent/guardian further covenant and agree not to sue the organization, its directors individually, volunteers, and staff for any claim for damages or liability. I have read and understand all of the policies and rules and agree to abide by them. I understand that the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization is not responsible for any prizes forfeited by sponsors. I understand that this contract is enforceable in court under state and federal laws.

The contestant and parent/guardian (if under 18) understand the expenses of competing and that all fees paid are non-refundable, non-transferable.

The contestant understands that the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization reserves the right to make modifications, as needed, without prior notice at its sole discretion.

By signing and submitting the Form online, along with my parent or guardian if under 18, I am certifying that I have read and agreed to all rules, which are published on the organization's website, handbooks, paperwork, and applications.

By accepting a state title with the Miss Tourism Pageant Organization, you are agreeing to the rules and policies herein. Every contestant completes the online registration form, which includes the above contract and guidelines, and an acceptance of our national rules and policies as published on our website.
